

TESTER

Elizabeth City, North Carolina, USA

SEERSGATE IS LEADING:

I went to a church way that the servant once attended. It was truly a new will given for me to have a viewing of. There have been a few church visits in Texas, yet this is the first church visit under this new level of training. It will all be made clear as each detail is presented.

There have been no details shared with me concerning this church way that would give me insight before I had the Great King's will placed within me; for it will look as if there was sharing before, but it will not be in that way. This would confuse any if they were not drinking in the Great Way's will. What will be shared will truly give a full way being moved on in the power ways in the Great Planner King Jesus.

The church service had the same "feel" as when I once attended so long ago, in natural details. The same "feel" would have a way to seem as if there truly was no growth spiritually, yet that would be my human fleshly way if that was stated. God had a purpose for sending me to a church building in a local state that was not part of the original power training. And that purpose was to show me within that I am truly hearing the way that He is giving.

I was in a humble way—not moving to gain attention. At my leading, there would have been no one who would be introduced to me—not because of demons but because I never want to be noticed when moving in church visits.

I was in a way to see a new detail never seen in these details. I was shown a column right near the window, up where the stage was. This fire did not burn with consuming other areas: This column was made up of the material that was fire itself. I pondered what that would mean. I could see the various shades of orange that filled up with a way to be as purifying. The column did not leave with the ending of the service.

It truly was a “tester.” The fire moved a shifting way into unseen realms. This way would mean that the power, presence, and glory are able to be transferred into natural dealing ways. I looked at this column of fire that gave a human a way to pass from natural dealings and straight into the power way in another moving known as glory.

If the people would just look at what glory truly is, there would be a new way to approach God’s Throne Room.

I am fully being a humble way to say there is still much to learn in doing these church visits. At the same time, there would be a great breakthrough when the people put the Great King’s plan into proving ways. There, in this small church, the Great Way was setting the stage for a major visitation. Will the church way be ready?

SEVEN YEARS LATER

YAHWEH IS SPEAKING:

No, they are not ready. I gave them a great amount of time to embrace My world-level prophet, but they spewed out the message and rejected the church report. Their fate is sealed. Yahweh will not overlook how they treated you. They didn’t reach out to you to gain a deep way. They said you are moving off course into demon-based details.

This day, I cut them off, and they will never have a crumb from the Seersgate table of spiritual eating and drinking.

They should have sought you for a clear way and not write you off as a false Christian. It’s too late.
