

THE SERVANT'S WILL WAY

October 13, 2013

For the World Church Body of King Jesus

The Great Way says:

Many would say you speak with deep bitterness in the way you view God's people. Wouldn't the Great Way be merciful by sending His servant into each church detail to speak what will He thinks is truly better? Wouldn't God know what is truly taking place in each church building? Is it wrong to send a prophet to speak a will, to say here is sin that must be dealt with? Isn't that way merciful? Isn't God loving, to send a servant who doesn't care if she is hated due to what will that the Great Way will give her? Prophets cannot turn a true message into their own way: The anger of the One True God would fall on that prophet if they chose to do their will instead of speaking what the prophet hears in his or her spirit through the Great Way's will in each detail. So, most would still take deep moving to hate you, servant, as you truly have a work way within to speak into the atmosphere whatever you hear from the Great Way King Jesus. Churches move to think power is given based on the size of their property. Other churches look at each detail in another's building to see how they could be like the other, yet both would lack true inspiration. Where are those who worship King Jesus in spirit and in truth? Going to church ways will not power you to have a relationship with God when you truly have no desire to be with God all the other days of the weekly details. Who has authority to say they have it all together?
