

THE SUFFOCATING CHURCH

Elizabeth City, North Carolina, USA

SEERSGATE IS SPEAKING:

I went to a church that was situated in the neighborhood nearby. The church was well manicured. Even the cemetery nearby did not seem to bother me. I wanted to learn of God's will for that little church building.

Would God come and bring a major plan that would help many? How can I explain what Yahweh showed me? Who would understand that spiritual details could affect your natural body?

This day, I saw much clearer. I did the expected: I sat, stood, and hoped with a deep yearning. Some would say I long for much more than what should be given. Some would say that I should be truly content just with what is "boring." Who would label anything "boring" —especially when meeting with our Great King? I did not: I just wanted Him to show up. I hoped that God would plant a cross.

As the worship came, more was made clear. I was having a hard time breathing. I could not understand how no one else could feel this level of suffocation. It was as if gelatin—invisible yet still as potent—overtook my natural body and made it where I was having difficulty taking in natural air.

I felt the air leave the room, replaced with a torturous level of clogging. It was as if the room filled up with spiritual gelatin—a clogging gelatin—no place to have true freedom to raise hands, dance, and pray in the Spirit.

How I longed to just feel the presence and power of God. I've learned what that would feel like: It feels as if nothing would ever harm you. That love is so real, where it permeates and exposes. God's love exposes all that we would ever be able to hide from others seeing it. God's love is not judgmental, yet God's love will force up all that has a nature that contradicts God's Spirit.

God's love will expose, even when there are still painful memories that have not been dealt with.

God's love—I could not feel it until a man came up to the pulpit to share a story of his outreach in another nation. I could tell that this minister was anointed to perform the given work of reaching the lost in that foreign land. Yahweh allowed me to sense His anointing and see the spiritual mantle upon the older man's shoulders.

Also, an interpreter came along with the minister and stood with him on stage. There was a large spiritual shield that covered the younger interpreter. I saw that they were equipped for work.

But this church way truly gave a plan that would give no room for spiritual breathing. Entering the building seemed warm and inviting, but as the Great Way removed the veil to allow me to see the spiritual atmosphere, it caused me to start to have a natural breathing problem, where it truly seemed as if the air was being removed.

And with that suffering to breathe, I had to leave the sanctuary to get some natural air in their bathroom. I almost broke down in tears in the restroom, but my Great King will not have me show too much emotion to not affect others near me or cause attention to what is taking place with me.

I never long to enter that church building ever again. That was once done with me in private living details, where a demon came to my bedroom and caused me to be extremely weak. It was as if the demon was taking the literal air out of my body. Those who would say it's truly harsh would need to imagine losing their oxygen and barely being able to breathe.

Who would understand that the unseen moving would affect you? But it's truly possible.

What causes this level of suffocation that looks as if natural gelatin fills the very air in the room? What would cause it?

GREAT I AM SAYS:

I will speak. It is a way that must be shown. How can there be any true will in drinking great presence, power, and glory while the natural way is also clogged with spiritual gelatin that hinders any moving in Me? How can any breakthrough take way? What can move and change how they run this full way? I am now giving you the answer.

I had you pray in the Holy Spirit—in unknown languages—to give a different shape in the building.

As you prayed, the power in the words took shape and flowed into the room, giving a space in the gelatin to have a breathing airway. Your prayer, at My leading, broke through the spiritual moving to bring clear air, free to come and drink in Me. Words flowed out and opened a clear way to release and to receive.

What did you notice that was lacking? Prayer way. Prayer. Prayer. Prayer.

All was led by emotions, with great Scripture reference. No prayer opened the airway. No prayer prepared the place. No prayer welcomed Me. They did not welcome Me in any way, shape, or form. No prayer for any hurting. No prayer for a release. No prayer in the unknown tongues.

How can humans say they "church visit" for their way? The preacher said that they come and gather for their way. What about Me? Should the pastor make it seem as if there is only the people's way? That democracy moves in church buildings. Religion movings—they take over and rule.

How can any truly learn in church ways if they always think with natural planning and never involve Me?

I have seen enough of that church. If I truly were asked what should be moved on, I would say to remove all leadership and have a major surging in Spirit. What kind of burning up would be needed? A man or woman who loves Me more than giving his or her will. That is really important that the people humble themselves before Me and give their full hearts and follow Me.

This church would be removed, as a Seven Church mentioned in the Seven Churches in Revelation. Those that bring greater spiritual bondage have to be dealt with. You could have suffocated if I did not have you leave the room.

Why is no one else taking on major painful dealings just as you?

There are variations to their drinking way in this church building. I have to show that almost most of the church in attendance were babies, and others did a way to be curious. Their way of being inexperienced in spiritual discernment made it where they would think that this atmosphere is good and that being weak in spiritual nutrition is okay.

Who would have a way to look into the full way and make it truly clear that even church buildings can truly cause greater dying dealings? It is truly your responsibility to cause a major stirring to get the people to release the old way, to have Me give them a full new way. Come and bring this way to all church ways and into the world as a whole.

You truly are telling the truth.
